D-BOX Announces Sixth Film with Warner Bros. Pictures, Clash of Titans in Theatres April 2
Second 3-D Film to Feature D-BOX's Motion Technology

Longueuil, Quebec (March 11, 2010) – D-BOX Technologies Inc. (DBO.A on the TSX Venture Exchange), a leader in innovative motion technology for the entertainment industry, has announced its sixth release with Warner Bros. Pictures to feature its unique motion technology with the studio's latest epic tale, Clash of the Titans, in theatres April 2.

"Warner Bros. continues to be one of our greatest studio supporters," said President and Chief Executive Officer of D-BOX Technologies, Claude Mc Master. "While this is the second 3-D motion picture release to feature the D-BOX experience, with Clash of the Titans it is on a larger scale given our North American expansion over the past months. The combination of D-BOX's precision motion effects with the added element of 3-D cinematography enhances the movie viewing experience, creating a truly realistic, multi-dimensional event for audiences."

Action Fantasy. In "Clash of the Titans," the ultimate struggle for power pits men against kings and kings against gods. But the war between the gods themselves could destroy the world. Born of a god but raised as a man, Perseus (Sam Worthington) is helpless to save his family from Hades (Ralph Fiennes), vengeful god of the underworld. With nothing left to lose, Perseus volunteers to lead a dangerous mission to defeat Hades before he can seize power from Zeus (Liam Neeson) and unleash hell on earth. Leading a daring band of warriors, Perseus sets off on a perilous journey deep into forbidden worlds. Battling unholy demons and fearsome beasts, he will only survive if he can accept his power as a god, defy his fate and create his own destiny.
