

D-BOX Technologies Inc. signs important distribution agreement with Link DC China

Longueuil, Canada (August 16, 2016) – D-BOX Technologies Inc. (D-BOX)(TSX:DBO), a leader in immersive motion technology, has just signed an agreement with Link Digital Cinema China Technology (Beijing ) Co., Ltd. (Link DC), a subsidiary of Zhixinhengcheng and one of the largest distributors of cinema equipment in China. Under the terms of the agreement, Link DC has rights to distribute D-BOX technology throughout the country.

The company has a large presence within the Chinese market and a successful record of servicing Tier 1 and Tier 2 clients. “Their track record and reputation opens up a world of exciting opportunities for us,” declares Claude Mc Master, President and CEO of D-BOX. “On top of being a leading distributor for cinema equipment, Link DC is recognized for their sales support and wide-ranging expertise - valuable tools for us as we push to significantly accelerate our growth throughout Asia.”

“As a company, we are always looking for innovative products and leading-edge technology that will engage audiences and give them compelling reasons to go to the movie theatres,” adds Qing Jingchuan, General Manager from Link DC. “We also want to bring lasting value to our clients and create more business for them. This agreement with D-BOX gives us all that and more.”

This is another important step for D-BOX as they build on their success throughout the Asian market and capitalize on the country’s growing thirst for new cinema experiences and premium quality entertainment.
